

A. Fill in with correct time and place prepositions.

1. Mary now lives Columbus Avenue but the 1980s she had lived number 52 Washington Street.
2. While getting the car she saw a strange person who was getting the bus running the station.
3. We saw an accident while driving the motorway a cold and rainy day.
4. I usually get up early the morning and go bed late night, but weekends I don't get up 11.00 a.m.
5. They are building a school my house, I can see it my back garden.
6. Let's stay , today it's very cold on the terrace!
7. We were flying the clouds so we didn't see the Dolomites us.
8. The man sitting me was so tall that I couldn't see the performance well.
9. They'll be here about half an hour, they've just called me the ring road.
10. The thief jumped the fence, walked the lane and got the house while everybody was sleeping.

B. Complete the instructions about a hurdle race with the place prepositions below.

until • in front • at • over • through • down • up • over • along • to • out of • across

Follow the instructions

..... (1) the start you'll have to wait (2) you hear the "go" signal. You then run (3) the traced path and jump (4) a wall. You continue to run (5) the end of the path, then you will have to crawl (6) a small tunnel. Once you are (7) the tunnel you will have to climb (8) a ladder and then go (9) a slide. After that you will run (10) the bridge, ... (11) a stream, at the end of which you will see the "Arrival" sign just (12) of you.

C. Complete the passage about Christmas in Rome with suitable prepositions.Christmas in Rome

Rome is the top Italian city to visit (1) the Christmas holidays and the place where the celebration of Christmas originated. The first Christmas Mass was said (2) the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore and the earliest known nativity was created (3) 1300 for the Rome Jubilee. You can enjoy the city's Christmas sights (4) early December (5) Epiphany, that is (6) January sixth. (7) noon, ... (8) Christmas day, crowds of people gather (9) Vatican Square for a blessing (10) the Pope. Piazza Navona becomes a huge Christmas market, where a Father Christmas goes (11) the stands to delight the kids. (12) the eve of the Epiphany, a witch, called "La Befana", comes to visit the children (13) the night. She comes (14) the chimneys, and leaves gifts (15) the children's socks which are left (16) the fireplace.