

TEST YOUR PROGRESS SCHEDE 1-13

- A. 1c; 2b; 3b; 4a; 5b; 6a; 7b; 8a; 9c; 10b; 11b; 12a; 13c; 14a; 15a
- B. 1. There are two women in the shop. 2. Are Carmen and Juan Irish? No, they aren't. 3. These are my shoes here. 4. Is there any milk in the fridge? Yes, there is. 5. Has Grace got a cat? No, she hasn't.
- C. 1. Is there any history homework today? No, we're lucky, there's none. 2. Is there a carton of milk in the cupboard? No, sorry, but there's some orange juice. 3. He's got an interesting girlfriend. 4. Can I have half a kilo of flour and some butter, please? 5. Is there any information about that town on the Net? No, there's none. 6. Sorry, no visitors can come in here. It's private.
- D. 1. Are there any bottles of beer in the fridge? 2. He has got a big American car. 3. Can I have two tomato sandwiches please? 4. I am hungry but there isn't any food at home. 5. Those angry men have got no patience.
- E. 1. Betty and Bob are from Perth and they can swim very well. 2. Is John in his garage? No, he isn't. 3. Richard and Arthur are very intelligent boys. They are from Wales. 4. My neighbour, Maggie, has got two mice. 5. Where are those books? They have got beautiful photos inside.
- F. 1. What's she like? 2. Can you speak German? 3. Have you got any brothers? 4. Are her eyes blue? 5. Are you cold?
- G. 1. David and Elizabeth are English. Their flat is in central London. 2. Canberra is a university city. 3. There is an exciting film on TV tonight. 4. That is my car, over there near the bank. 5. Are you hungry? Yes, can I have some biscuits? 6. Can Ernest ride a horse? No, he can't. 7. What's her job? She's an architect. 8. We've got some milk but we haven't got any tea. 9. They've got two children: a son and a daughter.
- H. 1d; 2e; 3i; 4h; 5g; 6j; 7c; 8b; 9f; 10a

TEST YOUR PROGRESS SCHEDE 14-25

- A. 1. What does Rosanne usually have for lunch? 2. What does Mike do at the weekend? 3. Do you play ice hockey in winter? 4. What is your brother's name? 5. We never have an early dinner on Sundays.
- B. 1. in; 2. from, to; 3. to; 4. on; 5. in; 6. at; 7. on; 8. at; 9. on, on
- C. 1. His; 2. mine; 3. theirs; 4. hers; 5. his; 6. ours
- D. 1. Are the candidates' names Arthur and Owen? 2. The teachers' staffroom is very small. 3. The roof of the house is very old. 4. My sister's boyfriend is an artist. 5. Where is the director's office? 6. The name of the church is St Mary's.
- E. Jane: What does your sister do?
Paul: My sister? She's a heart surgeon.
Jane: Where does she work?
Paul: In Sydney, in Saint John's Hospital.
Jane: Where does she live?

Paul: She's lucky because she lives right near the harbour.

Jane: How does she go to work?

Paul: She goes to work by ferry.

Jane: How often do you see her?

Paul: I see her only once a year.

Jane: Do you ever go to Sydney?

Paul: No, never. She always comes over here to England.

Jane: When does she come?

Paul: She comes in July when it's winter in Australia.

Jane: How much does the plane ticket cost?

Paul: The plane ticket costs about £1,000.

- F. 1. Who is calling the electrician? 2. Where do you go? 3. Whose car do you drive? 4. Who are you waiting for? 5. What is happening right now?
- G. 1. What does he do? 2. How often do you go to the barber's? 3. Excuse me, but you are standing on my foot. 4. I'm studying. 5. She is having a shower. 6. Why are you sitting in your study? 7. Brian always has a good time in Greece every summer. 8. They aren't working at the moment. 9. I'm writing to you from my hotel in the centre of Lisbon. 10. My cousin doesn't smoke.
- H. 1. That's not her car. Hers is big. 2. That's not his bicycle. His is blue. 3. That's not their house. Theirs is modern. 4. That's not your handbag. Yours is on the sofa. 5. That's not my cup of tea. Mine is with milk. 6. Those are not his books. His are on the chair. 7. Those are not her gloves. Hers are black.
- I. 1. He's reading last week's magazine. 2. Sue's and Tom's mothers are at home. 3. The girls' books are on their desks. 4. Can I have Paul's dictionary, please? 5. Anne and Jane's mother is in Copenhagen. 6. Henry's mobile phone is on the kitchen table. 7. The men's canoe race is at 2p.m. 8. It's Maggie's computer, not Jill's.

TEST YOUR PROGRESS SCHEDE 26-36

- A. 1. Swimming; 2. to eat; 3. staying; 4. working; 5. wearing
- B. 1. me; 2. it; 3. them; 4. me/us; 5. them; 6. us; 7. her; 8. you; 9. him; 10. you
- C. My Danish aunt lives in Canada near the Rocky Mountains. She's a nurse and works in an important hospital. She loves chocolate and only drinks the best English tea. Her house is in the country because she adores nature. She's got an impudent cat and a friendly dog. The dog is a golden retriever. They all go together on holiday to the United States. Money is no problem for her. She loves all living creatures under the sun.
- D. 1. likes; 2. is he like; 3. I'd like; 4. does he look like; 5. would you like
- E. 1. I want you to come here immediately. 2. I don't want you to smoke in here. 3. I'd like you to turn off the radio. 4. I don't want you to tell my father. 5. I want you to do your homework.
- F. 1. I saw an accident while I was walking to work the other day. 2. When Kevin knocked on the door I wasn't doing anything special. 3. She was having a shower when she heard a strange noise. 4. He was sleeping in a tent when it started to rain. When he woke up he was sick. 5. Who were you speaking to at 9 p.m. last night? The phone was engaged for half an hour.

- G. 1. Did you go out at the weekend? 2. How many people were there at the party? 3. Who took you to the party? 4. What was he doing when you arrived? 5. How long did you stay there?
- H. 1. I'm bored here. There's nothing to do in this small town. 2. I'm thirsty. I desperately need something to drink. 3. The ferry is full. There isn't anywhere to sit. 4. I never take the car into town because there's nowhere to park. 5. I can't find anyone to help me with the housework.

TEST YOUR PROGRESS SCHEDE 37-47

- A. 1. I'm sure our team will win the championship this year. 2. Why are you going out? I'm going to buy a lottery ticket. 3. It's going to jump onto the table. 4. This year Halloween will be on a Tuesday. 5. In three days' time we will be sitting on a beach in Bali. 6. The tour starts from the main square and ends at the bus station. 7. Chris and Jay are leaving next week and they are staying in France for a month. 8. You will forget it. 9. What will you be doing in a month's time? 10. I'm getting married. 11. OK I'll send one tonight. 12. The train arrives at platform five at 9:15 a.m.
- B. 1. longest; 2. the worst; 3. better; 4. The biggest; 5. faster
- C. 1c; 2d; 3a; 4e; 5b
- D. 1. Anne went to Canada six months ago. She now has a job there and she has been working since July. 2. When I bought my new house last year I asked for a telephone connection but I have been waiting for ages and my phone still hasn't come. 3. I have been playing tennis for a long time but this year I have played only three matches. 4. He has been cooking since 6 o'clock this morning but he has only made two cakes. He hasn't had his breakfast yet.
- E. 1. She didn't want to sell her house because she had lived there as a child. 2. My sister came from Australia to see me last week. I hadn't seen her for over ten years. 3. How long had you been waiting when the ambulance finally arrived? 4. I had just got into bed when somebody knocked on the door. 5. After he had drunk a pint of beer, he began to feel dizzy. 6. I was exhausted yesterday because I had been working in the vegetable garden. 7. She called me late last night because someone had damaged the kitchen window and the front door. 8. Before he got promoted he had been doing research abroad.
- F. 1. The railway line goes through long dark tunnels. 2. The bus goes along Mayfield Road then turns into High Street. 3. I looked out of the window at the birds and flowers. 4. The sun went down behind the mountains. 5. The dog jumped over the garden fence.

TEST YOUR PROGRESS SCHEDE 48-59

- A. 1. She's too poor to stop working. 2. There are too few people to start the meeting. 3. It's too good to be true. 4. There's too little food to have a party. 5. It's too difficult to understand. 6. There's too little time to catch the train. 7. It's too heavy to carry.

- B. 1. My bedroom is too small. There isn't even enough space for a chair. 2. There's always too much traffic and there aren't enough car parks. 3. He's too shy to ask her out to dinner. 4. Most high school students think that there are too many exams and not enough holidays. 5. He's old enough to be her father!
- C. 1a; 2b; 3b; 4c; 5c; 6a; 7b; 8c; 9c; 10a
- D. 1. I wish I could sing. 2. I wish my parents would pay my phone bills. 3. I wish I didn't have a long nose. 4. If he had more money, he wouldn't have to borrow any from his friends. 5. If she had passed her final exams, she would have gone to university.
- E. 1c; 2d; 3e; 4b; 5a
- F. 1. He said that in tribal societies telepathy is/was accepted as a human faculty. 2. He explained that he had been conducting experiments in that field for many years especially with the Aborigines of Australia. Results three years before had been fascinating. 3. He announced that the following month he was going to carry out an experiment between two astronauts in space and two recipients on earth. 4. He said/explained that he would be monitoring the brain waves of the volunteers. 5. He hoped that he would have extra financial support from the government this time. 6. He said in the future he would be able to use more sophisticated technology so results should be more accurate.
- G. 1. Over 200,000 children are born every day in the world. 2. Greenhouse gases are constantly being produced in great amounts. 3. At least 25,000 square kilometres of Amazonian rainforest will be destroyed by the end of this year. 4. A new videogame has just been created. 5. Thousands of pounds were donated to the International Red Cross last year. 6. Last night the President was asked to sign an agreement to end the civil war. 7. A criminal organization has been found guilty of illegally transporting arms to Africa. 8. The serial killer will be sentenced tomorrow morning by the High Court. 9. Many German cars are assembled in Spain. 10. Who was that newspaper article written by?

TEST YOUR PROGRESS SCHEDE 60-66

- A. 1. My parents won't let me go to Wales next summer. 2. The eggs I had for dinner made me feel ill. 3. Some songs make me cry. 4. My sister never lets me wear her jewellery. 5. I finally got him to take me dancing.
- B. 1. I must remember to have my membership card renewed, otherwise I won't be allowed into the member's lounge. 2. How often do you have your mobile phone topped up? 3. After the accident I had to have my motorbike resprayed. 4. Perhaps you should have your eyes tested. 5. We're having our photos taken tomorrow for the local newspaper. 6. We have to have our roof repaired. 7. I think we should have a heating system installed.
- C. 1. laughing; 2. going, getting up; 3. interrupting; 4. to use; 5. locking; 6. to climb; 7. phoning
- D. 1. Mrs Pearson, who has worked for the company for a number of years, has been promoted. 2. I don't know the woman (who) my mother's waiting for. 3. That's the man (who/whom) I saw outside the bank. 4. The desk (which/that) you're writing on is broken.

5. This is the watch (that/which) I gave to my husband for our anniversary. 6. Elisa, whose father owns a restaurant in London, is an extremely good cook. 7. This Dutch painting, which was bought in an auction, has been in the family for a long time. 8. The pink Villa in Beverly Hills, where I lived for five years, was sold to a famous pop star.

E. 1. Warren: What was life like when you were a child?

Jenny: Well, because of my parents' jobs we used to travel a lot and so my sister and I were sent to boarding school. At first it was difficult for us because we were not used to being on our own and we missed our parents. However, we soon got used to obeying the rules and disobeying them of course.

Warren: What about your holidays?

Jenny: Other students didn't use to invite us to their homes for long weekends but we used to go back home for the long summer holidays. In those days we flew in very old planes that didn't use to have comfortable seats. After a few years of uncomfortable travelling I am now used to taking any type of transport.

Warren: What about the food at school?

Jenny: You'd be surprised at how young people away from home get used to eating anything that's put in front of them. Actually, the food wasn't too bad. We used to have ice cream and chocolate pudding at least once a week.

F. 1a; 2c; 3b; 4a; 5b; 6b; 7c; 8a; 9b